

SOUTH SAIGON - HO CHI MINH CITY

February 3, 2020

Dearest JCI Senators & Members:

Greetings from Ho Chi Minh!

Your JCI ASPAC Senate Golf Tournament Organizing Committee has been busy preparing to welcome all of you to our city.

While we are all excited and getting ready, the recent developments on the Novel Coronavirus (2019-nCoV) outbreak have made us reassess the situation.

In light of the World Health Organization's declaration of the nCoV as a global health emergency, the COC, with due consultations with our government, our Executive Committee, our Elders and Advisers, have deemed it in the best interest of all to POSTPONE the JCI ASPAC Senate Golf Tournament this March 2020.

We truly apologize for any inconvenience this may have caused you. The health and safety of everyone, especially our delegates, is our primary concern.

We are closely monitoring the situation and will be posting any updates on the new dates for the tournament.

Meantime, we ask all of you, our beloved JCI Members and Senators, to continue to be vigilant, aware and that you all take the necessary precautions to stay safe and healthy. Let us pray that things get better and this virus will be contained very soon.

Should you have any concerns or clarifications, your COC is at your service!

Yours truly,

SILA CHY
